EXAMINER'S AMENDMENT

An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

Authorization for this examiner's amendment was given in a telephone interview with Mr. Brunner on 2-7-2005.

The application has been amended as follows: Claim 1, the section starting at p. 3 of the amendment at line 7 with “-OC(O)R5” and ending at line 12 with has been deleted.

Claim 1, line 13 the section starting with and ending in line 17 with “benzyl; or” has been canceled.

Claim 1, line 22 “with the proviso that neither of R1 or R2 is $-(CH_2)_{0-4}C=CH_2$,” has been canceled.

Claim 1, line 24 the phrase starting with “each R6 is” and ending at line 27 with “C6)alkynyl;” has been canceled.

Art Unit: 1625

In the Preliminary amendment to the specification at line 2 "presently allowed" has been changed to - -now US Patent 6,646,170- -.

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: The instant intermediates are not anticipated or obvious over the prior art. US Patent 4,208,428 discloses in Scheme 6 at col. 14 as intermediates for prostaglandins, compounds of the following formula:

where B represents a straight or branched chain alkylene group of 1-6 C atoms.

See also the compound made in Reference Example 4, which has the structure

Thus the related compounds taught by the reference differ from the instant compounds in that the carboxy group is directly attached to the cyclobutyl ring. This enables the hydroxy bearing C in the omega chain to be attached directly to the C of the chain that is so substituted as to form the cyclobutyl moiety as is required in the final products of the patent. See col. 3, line 35. Thus there is no suggestion therein to separate the cyclobutyl ring from the carboxy group by one or more carbon atoms as required in the instant claims.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
